A notice setting forth the proposed amendment or revision shall be sent by the Secretary to the members at least fifteen days prior to the meeting at which the amendment or revision is to be considered. Notification shall be by electronic format (e-mail and HYC Website) and/or mail to the member individually; and/or by publication in the daily newspaper in the City of Charleston, S.C.

SECTION 2. A seventy-five percent vote of members present at the meeting designated for consideration of an amendment or revision to the Constitution shall be required for its adoption.

BYLAWS OF
THE HOBCAW YACHT CLUB

ARTICLE 1. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the Club shall be invitation only. All members shall be furnished copies of the Constitution and Bylaws by the Secretary and must abide thereby. Qualifications for membership shall be in accordance with the Constitution.

SECTION 2. Any regular member in good standing may propose the name of an individual for membership.

SECTION 3. An application for membership may be submitted to the Membership Committee on an approved form. The application must list all requested information and be signed by the nominee, the sponsor, and one endorser. The sponsor and endorser must be regular members in good standing who are acquainted with the nominee and who can vouch for the nominees' character. The application must be accompanied by the required initiation fee (see Article V, Section 2) that is in effect at the time of application. Upon receipt of an application, the Membership Committee shall approve or disapprove the application. In the event that an application is disapproved, the nominee and sponsor shall be notified and the paid fees returned to the nominee. In event that an application is approved, one of the following procedures shall be followed:

- a. If the number of members is below the stipulated limitation (open membership), the Membership Committee shall submit the application to the Board of Directors for vote at their next regular meeting. Nominees approved by the directors shall be notified within ten days of approval.
- b. If the number of members is at or above (see Article I, Section 4b) the stipulated limitation (closed membership), the Membership Committee shall post the name of the nominee on the stand-by list and shall submit the application to the Board of Directors for vote at their next regular meeting. Nominees whose applications are disapproved by the Board of Directors shall have their names removed from the' Stand-by list and their paid fees returned. Nominees whose applications are approved by the Board of Directors shall have their names held on the stand-by list in sequence of the date and time of receipt of the application until a vacancy in membership exists. Names shall be placed on the stand-by list only by the Membership Committee and shall be taken for vote in the order of placement. The sequence for payment of dues and fees under closed membership shall be the same as that for open membership, except the initiation fee shall be that in effect at the time of acceptance to membership.
- c. A nominee not approved for membership may reapply only after a waiting period of one year from the original date of application. The Membership Committee shall inform the Board of Directors that a nominee was denied membership in the past when resubmitting the application.
- d. Hobcaw Point subdivision residents will not be subject to the restriction of Article I, Section 3, paragraph b.

SECTION 4. Membership in the Club shall be limited to 500 individuals.

- a. The membership limitation may be increased by a vote of the Board of Directors and the membership. Each increase may be accompanied by an increase in the initiation fee to be stipulated by the Board of Directors.

- b. Exceptions to the membership limitation shall be made for junior and out-of-town members who meet the stipulations for changing their status to that of regular membership (Section 5). When the number of members exceeds the limitation through such exceptions, the number of members must regress to a number below the stipulated level before opening membership to nominees on the stand-by list.

SECTION 5. The following members may convert from one membership category to another as stipulated below.

- a. Junior members may petition for resident or associate membership upon reaching twenty-one years of age provided that the individuals have been members for at least two years. Such petition shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors who may approve or disapprove the petition. A junior member who reaches twenty-one years of age may also petition for extension of junior membership, if occupied as a full time student in a College, University, or other institution of higher education, or is a member of the armed forces of The United States of America. Junior membership extension shall not be extended past the member's twenty-sixth birthday.
- b. Regular members may request conversion to out-of-town membership when all qualifications for out-of-town status are met. Such members may subsequently request conversion to previous membership status if they re-establish residence in the Tri-County area. If out-of-town members have not paid the full initiation fee, they may convert to regular status only upon payment of the remainder of the full initiation fee in effect at the time of such request. Out-of-town members who were not previously regular members may request a change to regular membership only after being an out-of-town member for at least two years. Out-of-town members who establish residence in the In-County area within a two year waiting period must apply for regular membership. If such application necessitates placement on the stand-by list, the applicant shall be placed in line according to the date of acceptance to out-of-town membership.
- c. Members who were previously dropped from membership for nonpayment of quarterly dues may reapply for regular membership subject to payment of past-due dues in effect for the year(s) in which dues were not paid. Board of Director approval is required in such cases.

SECTION 6. A member may resign in good standing from membership by 1) notifying the Secretary of intent to do so; 2) returning Club property, current membership card, and Club keys; and 3) settling all debts to the Club. The member may list the circumstances for resignation in the letter if future consideration may be desired for reinstatement.

SECTION 7. The Board of Directors may terminate the membership of any member if 1) the member does not pay quarterly dues by the stipulated deadline or 2) the member does not pay other indebtedness to the Club within thirty days of demand for payment. In disputes between members, the Ethics Committee shall investigate the matter and take action in accordance with Article XI of these Bylaws. In cases of misconduct by members or members of their families, the Board of Directors shall proceed in accordance with Article XI of these Bylaws.

SECTION 8. An application for reinstatement shall be processed in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as an application for membership with the exception that initiation fees may be waived or adjusted if the Board of Directors decides that the circumstances of resignation justify such action.

SECTION 9. Upon enactment of these Bylaws, all members in good standing shall continue their membership in their current membership status.

ARTICLE II. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Club shall be a Commodore, Vice-Commodore, Rear-Commodore, Treasurer, and Secretary.

ARTICLE V. FINANCES

SECTION 1. The fiscal year of the Club shall be from January 1st to December 31st.

SECTION 2. The schedule for initiation fees shall be:

- a. Regular membership shall require an initiation fee of three times the effective annual dues and made it point to Article V section 4 to include any assessments in the initiation fees. One third of the initiation fee will be set aside for debt reduction and/or future capital needs. One quarter's dues will also be collected when the new member is admitted into the club. If the fee is paid after the second month of the quarter, the quarterly dues payment will apply to the following quarter and no dues will be collected for the quarter that the fee is paid.
- b. Out-of-town membership shall require an initiation fee equal to Fifty percent of the regular fee.
- c. The Junior membership shall require no initiation fee. However, Junior members with less than three-years membership who petition for regular membership shall be required to pay a prorated initiation fee computed on a three-year basis. The amount of the fee shall be the current regular member fee less one-third the current regular fee for each year as a junior member.
- d. Members who have previously dropped their membership and subsequently seek reinstatement shall require an initiation fee equal to the sum of one-fourth the current regular initiation fee for each year (or pro-rated portion thereof) of their absence, not to exceed four years.
- e. Active Duty Military personnel who have a Permanent Change of Station (PCS) within 4 years of becoming a member will have the option of (1) moving membership to out-of-town membership category or (2) an initiation fee refund pro-rated equal to the sum of one-fourth of each year left on their 4-year window. No pro-rated refund will be given once they reach their 4-year membership anniversary date.

SECTION 3. Annual dues may be paid quarterly. Quarterly payments are due in full on the first day of each Quarter-January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1. Thirty days after each due date, unpaid dues are delinquent, and that member's account is assessed a late fee as determined by the Board of Directors. If delinquent dues and any assessments remain unpaid 60 days from the first day of each quarter, membership will be terminated and all club privileges revoked. Any subsequent request for reinstatement of membership must be accompanied by full payment of dues for that fiscal year and any other outstanding debts to the Club. Any former member who owes the Club money cannot use or enter the Club as a guest.

- a. Regular membership shall require annual dues that are determined by the Board of Directors. Any changes must be voted on at the annual membership meeting.
- b. Out-of-town memberships shall require annual dues of one-half the regular dues.
- c. Life membership shall require annual dues of one-third the regular dues.
- d. Junior membership shall require annual dues of one-fourth the regular dues.
- e. Other categories of membership require no dues.
- f. A change in membership category shall be effective on the first day of the next quarter, and appropriate dues will become effective at that time.

SECTION 4. Assessments may be levied on the membership by vote of the Board of Directors and the membership. A written statement of the motion for an assessment must be circulated to the members at least fifteen days prior to the meeting of which it is to be made. Assessment shall be levied in proportion to initiation fees; i.e., out-of-town members shall pay half as much as regular members and junior members shall not be obligated to assessments. Life members will pay one-third of the assessment as in proportion to their dues. Any assessment levied by the Club on its current members will also be levied on new members coming into the Club.

SECTION 5. Funds of the Club shall be accounted in the manner prescribed in Article II, Section 5 of these by-laws. Funds shall be held in the following accounts.

- a. An Operating Fund. All monies received from initiation fees, dues, and Club activities shall accrue to this fund which shall be used for the liquidation of debts incurred in ordinary operations of the Club.
- b. Other Funds. The Board of Directors may authorize the Treasurer to transfer surplus funds from the operating fund to other funds which may be used for the liquidation of debts incurred for building and purchasing equipment, furniture, and other major items. The Board of Directors may authorize transfer of money from one fund to another as deemed necessary.
- c. Committee Cash Funds. Small operating funds may be maintained by various committees with prior authorization by the Board of Directors and limited amounts set by the Board of Directors. Such funds must be closed at the end of each fiscal year with the money being transferred to the Operating Fund.
- d. Fund raising activities may be used to raise money for petty cash funds, but all such activities must be approved in advance by the Board.

SECTION 6. The property of the Club shall consist of real and personal property as properly comes into the possession of the Club.

ARTICLE VI. VOTING PRIVILEGES AND RULES

SECTION 1. There shall be one vote per resident or nonresident member.

SECTION 2. Votes must be cast in person. There shall be no proxy votes.

SECTION 3. At meetings of the membership a majority of voting members present shall be required to approve a motion except on membership, capital improvements exceeding $25,000 and amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws.

SECTION 4. At meetings of the Board, a simple majority vote of the Board members present shall be required to approve a motion except for motions for dissolution and special membership which shall require a unanimous vote for approval. The Board of Directors may vote electronically, via e-mail, within its powers under the Constitution and By-Laws, as an aid to conduct the business of the Club. The results of such a vote shall be added to the minutes of the next meeting held by the Board.

SECTION 5. All votes may be by voice or by showing of hands, although a member may call for a written vote on a motion and may challenge a vote.

SECTION 6. The quorum for meetings of the membership shall be not less than fifty (50) voting members. The quorum for the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be 2/3 of the members of the Board.

SECTION 7. Motions on capital improvements of $25,000 or more require 75% approval of the voting members present to carry.

SECTION 8. Roberts Rules of Order, current edition, shall govern this yacht club in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these By-Laws and any special rule of order this yacht club may adopt.

SECTION 9. Non-resident associate members will have all the same privileges as resident and non-resident members except that associate members can not vote.

ARTICLE VII. OTHER PRIVILEGES

SECTION 1. The use of Club facilities shall be confined to members, their immediate families, and guests of members.

SECTION 2. An organized activity sponsored by a member and that requires use of parts of the Clubhouse or grounds must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors and shall be subject to applicable House Rules.

SECTION 3. Use of Club facilities by any non-member group must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors and is subject to applicable House rules.

SECTION 4. Any member of a Yacht Club having membership in the South Atlantic Yacht Racing Association shall be granted reciprocal privileges in the Hobcaw Yacht Club for a specified period to be set by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 5. Guest privileges shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Guests shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Club and must be accompanied by a member whenever using the Club's facilities.

SECTION 2. Members shall be responsible for financial liabilities for their families and guests.

SECTION 3. Anyone using the Club's facilities may be asked to show ID for proof of membership.

SECTION 4. Failure to comply with the stipulations of this article shall be grounds for review by the Ethics Committee.

ARTICLE IX. PUBLICATIONS

SECTION 1. The HYC website shall be the official communication source to the membership from the Club. The monthly newsletter shall be the official publication of the Club. It shall be published monthly and posted to the website and mailed (by written request) or E-mailed free of charge to all categories of members. Required announcements of special meetings, proposed amendments to the Constitution of Bylaws, or other such items shall be published in the newsletter.

SECTION 2. Rules and regulations of the house, grounds, pool, and waterfront shall be printed and supplied to members at the time of their acceptance into membership and after there have been sufficient changes in them to justify a mailing. Copies of the most current rules and regulations shall be kept in the Clubhouse office for the benefit of members.

SECTION 3. Circulars, announcements, and other published material may be prepared by the standing committees of the Club and mailed or E-mailed to the membership with the approval of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4. A roster of Club members as approved by the Board of Directors shall be available to Club members in the Clubhouse office or from the Membership Chair.

SECTION 5. The Board of Directors may publish and distribute such other items as it deems necessary for operation of the Club and for information of the membership.

ARTICLE X. JUNIOR YACHT CLUB

SECTION 1. There may be a Junior Yacht Club that may exist under a name chosen by the members or that may be affiliated with a larger organization such as the Sea Scouts or Sea Explorers. The Junior Yacht Club shall function according to its own Constitution and Bylaws subject to the jurisdiction of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Membership in the Junior Yacht Club shall consist of individuals between the ages of ten and eighteen years. The members shall be sons and daughters of members of the Club.

ARTICLE XI. DISPUTES AND MISCONDUCT

SECTION 1. A member may file a complaint about the conduct of another member with the Ethics Committee. The member who files a complaint may be granted anonymity provided -that there are corroborating witnesses.

SECTION 2. The Ethics Committee shall review all matters concerning disputes between members that are brought before it. If the Committee determines that the complaint is unjustified or can mediate a settlement between the members involved, the matter shall be closed. If the Committee determines that the Board of Directors must act on the complaint, it shall report its findings to the Board.

SECTION 3. The Board of Directors, upon hearing a case in dispute, may dismiss the case, may attempt to mediate a settlement between the members involved, or may terminate the membership. Termination must be by a 2/3 vote of the Board.

SECTION 4. Members who have been charged by another member in a dispute and penalized by the Board of Directors have the right to appeal to the general membership. If an appeal is made to the membership, a vote must be taken on acquittal or expulsion.

SECTION 5. In cases of misconduct by a member or members of his/her family, the Board of Directors is empowered to reprimand or censure the member, to suspend membership temporarily, or by 2/3 vote of the Board, to terminate the membership permanently. Any termination decision may be appealed to the general membership, as in Section 4 preceding.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1.
